FROM PASTOR MOORHEAD

It's October, 2017 the 500th anniversary of the Lutheran Reformation. (Who doesn't already now this?) Having spent two weeks in Wittenberg, Germany, last October, I can well imagine what the next few weeks there will be like. Of course, Lutherans in the United States, Nebraska, and Omaha will be celebrating. In Omaha there will be a service at Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church on Sunday, October 22 at 3 pm. This is so special (500th anniversaries only happen once), that we at St. Paul won't worship that day at our church at 10 am. Instead, we'll go to BSLC and worship with all other Omaha LCMS Lutherans. Sounds like a party to me. Please join me. I will be reading the Gospel in the service and Martha and I will be singing in the choir. My friend and classmate, Dale Meyer, will be the preacher. Let's do 500 right!! Otherwise, our next chance at such a Lutheran 500-year milestone will be the 1000th anniversary. The Reformation, both then and now, is all about being put right with God. Let's celebrate!!!
